Joubert is Improving.

Pretoria, Thursday, Dec. 14.—Gen. Snyman reports from Mafeking, under date of Wednesday, December 13, that the British attacked a Boer fort. The Boer casualties were one man killed and one wounded. The dispatch also says that Commandant Schoenman had a brush with the British on Tuesday, December 12, at the Geddehulst Farm, which the British were bombarding on Wednesday.

The condition of General Joubert, who is ill at Volksrust, is improving. The Transvaal Government is employing natives to work in mines, paying £1 a month and feeding them.

Duke Would Enlist.

London, Dec. 16.—It has again become known that the Duke of Connaught is exceedingly anxious to serve with the forces at the front and has once more offered to waive the question of seniority which stood in the way. It is regarded as quite possible that his Royal Highness may be given command of a division yet to be mobilized, but it is known that both the War Office and the Queen are opposed to the idea.

Sentences Commuted.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The President has commuted to imprisonment of twenty years the capital sentences imposed by court-martial upon four American soldiers, members of a Washington regiment in the Philippines, for criminal assault upon native women. The names of the soldiers are Scarborough, Conline, McBenett and Dampfhor.

Beresford's Command.

London, Dec. 16.—Rear Admiral Lord Charles Beresford this morning confirmed the Associated Press announcement of his appointment to the second in command of the British Mediterranean fleet. He has informed his constituents that this necessitates his resignation of his seat in the House of Commons. He has represented York city in the Conservative interest.
